Jonny Flynn Named to T-Mobile NBA All-Rookie Second Team

Minneapolis/St. Paul – Minnesota Timberwolves guard Jonny Flynn has been named to the 2009-10 T-Mobile NBA All-Rookie Team, the National Basketball Association announced earlier today. Flynn was named to the Second Team after averaging 13.5 points (5th among rookies), 4.4 assists (5th) and 1.0 steals (7th) per game.

The T-Mobile NBA All-Rookie Teams were selected by a voting panel consisting of the NBA's 30 head coaches, who were asked to choose five players for the first team and five players for the second team, regardless of position. Coaches were not permitted to vote for players on their own team. Two points were awarded for first team votes and one for second team votes.

Flynn, the sixth overall pick of the 2009 NBA Draft, started all 81 games he played for the Wolves. Flynn was Minnesota's leading scorer on 18 occasions and led the team in assists 43 times, including a dozen games with 20+ points. The Syracuse product led all scorers with a season-high 29 points in the Jan. 18 win vs. Philadelphia and tallied 28 points, including the game-winner in the final seconds, in a win at Utah on Dec. 14.

Flynn joins Felton Spencer, Kevin Garnett, Craig Smith and Kevin Love as Timberwolves rookies to earn second team honors. Pooh Richardson, Christian Laettner, Isaiah Rider, Stephon Marbury, Wally Szczerbiak and Randy Foye all earned first team honors during their rookie seasons in Minnesota.
